

Professor Ehud R. Toledano

---

Abbreviated Academic CV

Current position:	Holder, University Chair for Ottoman and Turkish Studies (since 2007), Tel Aviv University
Positions held:	Member, Board of Directors, Tel Aviv University (2005-2009) Director, the Graduate School of Historical Studies (2004-2008) Professor of Ottoman and Middle Eastern History, Tel-Aviv University (at TAU since 1980)
PhD:	Princeton University (1979)
Post-Doc:	ARCE (Cairo, Egypt, 1979-80)
Research and teaching:	ARIT (Istanbul, Turkey, 1977-78) Senior Associate Member (St Antony's College, University of Oxford, 1986-87) Senior Research Fellow (University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, 1993-94) Visiting Professor (UCLA, 2000) Maurice Amado Visiting Professor (UCLA, 2001) Visiting Professor (UCLA, 2002)

Non-academic Experience

Work with Government Ministries and Agencies

Member of the advisory team and think-tank directly reporting to Shimon Peres, at the Prime Minister's Office and the Foreign Ministry (1984-1990)

Member of the strategic think-tank directly reporting to Yitzhak Rabin, at the Prime Minister's Office and the Labor Party (1990-1995)

Diplomatic training for Ambassador in Turkey (not served), at the Foreign Ministry (1997)

Work with the Media

Numerous news analysis articles in the press on Middle East affairs (especially regarding Egypt and Turkey), mainly in Haaretz and Yediot Aharonot (bi-weekly column for more than a year)

Numerous radio and television interviews (local and foreign) on Middle East affairs